

I am in full support of the NCVEC request to eliminate the Morse Code Testing requirement. Removal of the requirement will help to stimulate interest in Amateur Radio by: 1. Eliminating old, outdated, archaic rules which no longer serve the public interest. 2. Improve the public image as being modern and relevant.